CONGRATULATIONS TO 2014 FELLOWS!

The AIA Jury of Fellows met at the end of January and elected 139 members to the College of Fellows. We're very pleased to announce 2 members from AIA Columbus - Timothy Hawk, FAIA and Doug Parris, FAIA - were elevated. Fellowship is one of the highest honors the AIA bestows on members. Elevation to Fellowship not only recognizes the achievements of the architect as an individual but also elevates before the public and the profession those architects who have made significant contributions to architecture and to society. This is a huge achievement and they join the 11 other Fellows from our chapter that include: Peter Bardwell, FAIA; Dallas Harder, FAIA; Jack Hedge, FAIA; Ballard Kirk, FAIA; Robert Livesey, FAIA; Robert Loversidge, FAIA; Phil Markwood, FAIA; Curt Moody, FAIA; Carole Olshavsky, FAIA; Allen Patrick, FAIA and Norbert Peiker, FAIA. The Investiture Ceremony will take place this summer in Chicago during the AIA National Convention. Congratulations to both of them!

TIMOTHY HAWK, FAIA

As an AIA leader and innovative practitioner, Timothy Hawk has made design present in a mid-sized city and advanced knowledge exchange among architects and allied professionals through improved digital access, collaborative models and educational programming.

DOUG PARRIS, FAIA

An innovator in Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) and other design and delivery methodologies, Doug Parris' emphasis on systematic practice increases efficiency, bolsters collaboration, and delivers transformational environments for domestic and international healthcare and learning institutions.

AIA Columbus would like to thank the following sponsors for their continued support of the Chapter:
